Policy Statement (FIN-ACC-50). During the course of university business, it may be necessary to incur hospitality expenditures for the purpose of promoting and furthering the mission of the university. As a public institution, Indiana University is entrusted with the funds of various constituents. In order to carry out its fiduciary duty, university employees must demonstrate prudent judgment when expending funds. The Fiscal Officer is responsible for ensuring the propriety and reasonableness of all hospitality expenditures. Additionally, all funds must always be used for institutional benefit, never for the purpose of personal benefit or privilege of an individual. Therefore, all hospitality expenditures must meet the criteria of the business connection requirement to be considered business expenses under the university's Accountable Plan policy \(FIN-ACC-620\).
